Elder Patrick Kearon of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles and his wife, Sister Jennifer Kearon, will speak to young adults during a worldwide devotional on Sunday, February 1, 2026, at 6:00 p.m. MST. All young adults ages 18–35, including those who will turn 18 this year and married young adults, are invited to participate.

This event will also commemorate and briefly highlight the 100-year anniversary of institutes of religion. Young adults can expect local institute programs to celebrate with in-person gatherings surrounding the broadcast.

Organize Local Gatherings to View the Broadcast

You may consider planning a convenient time and inviting the young adults in your area to gather, watch, and be inspired.

Young adults are more likely to participate when the event is planned by their peers and announced in all wards where young adults reside. Personal invitations—from friends, ministering brothers and sisters, or leaders—will also encourage in-person participation and help all to feel welcome.

For broadcast details, including times available in your area, streaming, available languages, and closed captioning, refer to the additional information below. Information is also available at events.ChurchofJesusChrist.org in select languages.
