

ELDER RICARDO P. GIMÉNEZ

General Authority Seventy

Elder Ricardo P. Giménez was sustained as a General Authority Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on April 6, 2019, at age 47. At the time of his call, he had been serving as a counselor in a stake presidency. Since being called as a General Authority, he has served as an assistant to the North America West Area Presidency, president of the California San Diego Mission and assistant executive director in the Priesthood and Family Department. Elder Giménez currently serves at Church headquarters as assistant executive director to the Missionary Department and as a counselor in the United States Central Area presidency.

Elder Giménez has served in several Church callings, including full-time missionary in the Chile Concepción Mission, high councilor, counselor in a ward Young Men presidency, counselor in a bishopric, bishop, stake president, mission president, and Area Seventy in the Chile and South America South Areas.

Elder Giménez received an undergraduate degree in accounting and auditing from the University of Santiago, Chile, in 1997. In 2003, he received a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Chile. He began his career working in the mining industry in 1999. He then worked in the information technology industry as a finance director for Computer Sciences Corporation in Latin America. In 2012 he returned to the mining industry as part of the finance operations team for Sierra Gorda Mining. At the time of his call as a General Authority, he worked as administrative manager for Robinson Nevada Mining Company.

Ricardo Patricio Giménez Salazar was born in Antofagasta, Chile, on Nov. 28, 1971. He married Catherine Ivonne Carrazana Zúñiga in 1997. They are the parents of two children.

